July 2009 we became the pastors of Church at the Crossroads in Ahoskie, North Carolina. Praise God it finally happened! We waited almost a year for this church to open its doors to us because we knew that the Lord had called us there. We did not even apply to any other church because we just knew it was the right one. After an interview, they unanimously agreed to have us be their pastors.

Church at the Crossroads is an interdenominational church that started about 10 years ago. CATC has a large building right in the middle of downtown Ahoskie. They have some of the most wonderful people we have ever met. We count it a true privilege to be a part of this church.

We thank every one of you that prayed for us to get the right church. We absolutely believe we have found it. God is already doing great things and growing the church in every area. Many have been added to regular attendance, youth, and the children's ministries. We're having visitors every week which had not happened for a long time before we came. God is adding to the church daily and we give Him all the glory.

We want to let you know we are still called to minister to the nations as well and we'll let you know of the upcoming mission trips we'll be taking. We love you in Christ — Thomas and Colleen

Taylor becomes pastor at CATC

AHOSKIE — Thomas Taylor is the new Senior Pastor of Church at the Crossroads.

He, his wife Colleen, and his two sons moved to Union toward the end of July. He traveled for the last five years teaching in churches across the east coast. He continues ministering around the world as an evangelist.

Taylor has ministered in the USA, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, Kenya, and India. He also ministered weekly as a Bible teacher to men in jail with Southeastern Correctional Ministries.

In 1998 he graduated from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 2007 Thomas graduated the International College of Bible Theology with a Bachelor of Theology degree.

Taylor and his wife, Colleen, both graduated from Rhema Bible Training Center in Broken Arrow, OK and the Domatia School of Missions, under Mark Brazee Ministries. Pastor Taylor and his family want the community to know that they are excited to be in Ahoskie, and they look forward to meeting the people.

"Meet the Pastor Day" has been scheduled for 10 a.m. July 26 and there will be a covered dish fellowship at 6 p.m.

The church is located at 203 East Main Street in Ahoskie. The telephone number is 252-209-8900. For more information, the following website may be visited: www.catcahoskie.com.

New Info

With the move to North Carolina, much of our information has changed. Most importantly, all donations no longer go to Open Door Church but they now go to Church at the Crossroads.

Please make donations out to "Church at the Crossroads" (not Thomas Taylor Ministries or Open Door Church) and put on the envelope:

Thomas Taylor Ministries
c/o Church at the Crossroads
PO Box 9
Ahoskie, NC 27910

CATC will provide you a tax-deductible receipt just as before. Thanks for all of your support. Additional contact information is at the bottom of this letter; please do not use the PO Box to Suffolk, VA any longer. Thanks.

Love,

Thomas and Colleen Taylor
